

People who helped with the rehab work at the new museum either lived in Arnold or at least Jefferson County. All of them have done a tremendous job over the past seven months. The only remaining item left to do is to install insulation in the second garage because temperatures reach 110 degrees. Therefore items cannot be stored at this time.

Meanwhile, take a peek at some of the items on display.

