Monthly meetings are held in the Lower Level of the Museum on the 1st Monday of each month beginning at 7 p.m.

Tiger Scouts Pack 550 visit the museum in February 5.

The vault door from the 2nd Maxville Bank is located on the inside of the Arnold Applebee’s Restaurant. On the door is a framed certificate showing 100 shares of stock sold on October 8, 1919 to E. Thompson.

Cadet Commander Lt. Allisha Talbert, shared about the Civil Air Patrol (CAP) in the March 4 meeting. She attends Windsor High School. Every Tuesday she attends Rockwood Summit High School in Fenton to learn all processes required to be part of CAP. Her flight training is at Spirit of St. Louis. At 16, she already has the Wright Brothers bar and General Billy Mitchell Award. The CAP helps out in emergencies, assists law enforcement agencies, and works with the National Guard.
